Whispers Through Fabric: Issara

Rooted in a childhood immersed in dressmaking & handcraft, Issara's practice embraces the improvisational nature of textile work. The pieces evolve through touch, memory, & slow, meditative construction. Using her own eco-printed fabrics made from leaves & flowers in her garden, she aims to create quiet, emotionally resonant works that honour both personal & ecological histories.

Echoes on the Lake - Jane Murphy solo

For the last decade Jane has had a close connection with Merimbula's Top Lake. It is her inspiration for this exhibition, focusing on the cloud formations reflected into the lake & shore line. This body of work combines peaceful dream-like oil paintings with small sculptures of found objects from the shore line.

17 April - 13 May
